

Moore Thompson Litigation Support

Services to the Legal Profession in Matrimonial Cases...

Moore Thompson offer support in all aspects of complex divorce, bringing to the process considerable experience in dealing with cases involving wealthy individuals and valuable business assets. We can assist in the following areas:

Business valuations

- ◆ Valuation of shareholdings in limited companies
- ◆ Partnership and sole trader valuations

Our expertise enables us to provide realistic and accurate commercial valuations, taking into account factors including:

- ◆ Balance sheet and market values of assets and liabilities
- ◆ Earnings history
- ◆ Trends and future profit streams
- ◆ Discounts applicable to levels of shareholding

Taxation matters and planning

Divorce inevitably presents significant tax implications. Moore Thompson's expert tax team are able to offer support and advice in all relevant issues, including:

- ◆ Tax-efficient extraction of funds
- ◆ Tax and the matrimonial home
- ◆ Tax implications and advice associated with the disposal of matrimonial assets

Liquidity

Where settlements involve business assets, courts will take into account the liquidity of the business. We are able to provide a detailed business appraisal to assist in achieving a result that is both fair and capable of protecting the continued trading ability of the business.

Trusts

Moore Thompson have dealt with a vast number of trust types over many years and are able to offer detailed advice on all aspects of trust matters within divorce.
